Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
January 1, 1867. }

To the Honorable Speaker of the House of Representatives.

SIR,—I herewith transmit to the Legislature a list of the cases argued, tried and conducted by me as Attorney General in the Supreme Judicial and Superior Courts, during the year ending on the thirty-first of December, A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty-six, with an account of their disposition. I also add a list of cases, to which the Commonwealth was a party, conducted by me in the courts of the United States.

The cases pending at the time of my last report in Supreme Court of the United States were, after many delay, reached and argued in Washington, some time in February last. These cases involved the question whether the license granted under the internal revenue laws of the United States authorized persons holding such license to sell liquor in violation of our statutes.

The court at Washington decided that such a license had no such effect as was claimed by the defendants in the liquor cases. A mandate was issued in each of these cases to the proper court in this State, announcing this decision.

Much delay and many difficulties in the prosecution of liquor cases have arisen during the year, by their removal from the State courts into the Circuit Court of the United States. Such removal was made before a trial, and was claimed to be authorized by a statute of the United States, passed on the second of March, A. D. eighteen hundred and thirty-three, and commonly known as the "force bill."

The last legislature instructed the Attorney General to take charge of these cases. When they so came into my hands, I found that there were in this position, removed into the Circuit Court for the Massachusetts district, several hundreds of such cases.

A motion to dismiss for want of jurisdiction was prepared and filed in each case, and after argument it was held by the court that the cases had been improperly removed from the State courts, and they were all dismissed, and from that time stood in the same position in the courts of the Commonwealth as if they had not been removed.

Fearing, notwithstanding this decision, that the attempt would still be made upon other grounds to continue this process of removal, and believing that it was not the intention of Congress, either by the "force bill," or by the provisions of the internal revenue laws, to authorize it in this class of cases, yet, inasmuch as these statutes were thought by many to be broad enough to give such authority, I drew a bill defining more carefully the causes which might be so removed. This bill was in substance passed by Congress at its last session, and I think now there can be no further removals of liquor cases the Circuit Court of the United States.

Since the decision before stated upon the license question, a number of cases have been carried by writs of error to the Supreme Court of the United States, raising, among others, the question whether the payment of a tax to the United States by a liquor seller, upon the liquor which he keeps and sells, authorizes him to sell and keep it in violation of the laws of the Commonwealth. These cases will probably be reached and argued during the present term of that court.

A bill was passed at the last session of Congress giving such causes precedence on the docket of the Supreme Court, and the delay caused heretofore by the multitude of cases there pending will, to some extent, in the future be prevented. A motion to assign a time for their argument will be made in these causes, as soon as the clerk there has printed the papers, so that they can be brought to the attention of the court.

The business of the Attorney General necessarily takes him into all the counties of the Commonwealth and into all its courts of general jurisdiction; it also has obliged him, in attending to causes in his hands, to be a week or more at a time in Washington.

During his absence from his office, there is no person having authority to reply to any of the numerous questions so frequently arising in the departments at the State house, or in any of the State offices. It frequently happens, also, that, at such times, something needs to be done in some of the courts in pending actions.

I respectfully suggest, that the difficulties so arising would be to a great extent obviated, if the Attorney General were authorized to appoint an assistant or deputy, who, at his request and under his direction, might aid him in the performance of his official duties.

I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,

CHESTER I. REED,
Attorney General.
